New Mexico Students Selected for United States Senate Youth Program Students Headed to Washington, D. C. and to Receive $10,000 College Scholarship

January 11, 2018, Washington, D.C. — The United States Senate Youth Program (USSYP) announces that high school students Mr. Aaron Tyler Braddock and Ms. Miriam Elizabeth Wallstrom will join Senator Tom Udall and Senator Martin Heinrich in representing New Mexico in the nation's capital during the 56th annual USSYP Washington Week, to be held March 3 — 10, 2018. Aaron Braddock of Carlsbad and Miriam Wallstrom of Los Alamos were selected from among the state's top student leaders to be part of the 104 national student delegation who will also each receive a $10,000 college scholarship for undergraduate study.

The USSYP was created by Senate Resolution 324 in 1962 and has been sponsored by the Senate and fully funded by The Hearst Foundations since inception. Originally proposed by Senators Kuchel, Mansfield, Dirksen and Humphrey, the impetus for the program as stated in Senate testimony is "to increase young Americans' understanding of the interrelationships of the three branches of government, learn the caliber and responsibilities of federally elected and appointed officials, and emphasize the vital importance of democratic decision making not only for America but for people around the world."

Each year this extremely competitive merit-based program brings 104 of the most outstanding high school students — two from each state, the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense Education Activity — to Washington, D.C. for an intensive week-long study of the federal government and the people who lead it. The overall mission of the program is to help instill within each class of USSYP student delegates more profound knowledge of the American political process and a lifelong commitment to public service. In addition to the program week, The Hearst Foundations provide each student with a $10,000 undergraduate college scholarship with encouragement to continue coursework in government, history and public affairs. Transportation and all expenses for Washington Week are also provided by The Hearst Foundations; as stipulated in S.Res.324, no government funds are utilized.

Aaron Braddock is a junior at Carlsbad Early College High School and serves as a Student Council representative. He is working on his Associate of Arts degree and to be completed in May 2019. He is the vice president of his school's Business Professionals of America chapter, a member of the mayor's Student Advisory Council, and a member of his school's Parent-Teacher-Student Association. He has worked as an intern for U.S. Senator Tom Udall, Mayor Dale Janway, and for the mayor's Mental Health Task Force.

Miriam Wallstrom attends Los Alamos High School and serves as the president of her school's Key Club. She is a National Merit semifinalist, a member of the National Honor Society, a German National Exam gold medal winner, as well as the leader for the National History Day competition. Miriam has an interest in history and may explore opportunities to serve in an elected office in the future.

Chosen as alternates to the 2018 program were Mr. Bradley Pace Moffett, a resident of Santa Fe, who attends Santa Fe High School and Ms. Dominica Ashley Chavez, a resident of Santa Rosa, who attends Santa Rosa High School.

Delegates and alternates are selected by the state departments of education nationwide and the District of Columbia and Department of Defense Education Activity, after nomination by teachers and principals. The chief state school officer for each jurisdiction confirms the final selection. This year's New Mexico delegates and alternates were designated by Mr. Christopher Ruskowski, Secretary Designate of Education.

While in Washington the student delegates attend meetings and briefings with senators, members of the House of Representatives, Congressional staff, the president, a justice of the Supreme Court, leaders of cabinet agencies, an ambassador to the United States and senior members of the national media. The students will also tour many of the national monuments and several museums and they will stay at the historic Mayflower Hotel in downtown Washington, D.C.

In addition to outstanding leadership abilities and a strong commitment to volunteer work, the student delegates rank academically in the top one percent of their states among high school juniors and seniors. Now more than 5,500 strong, alumni of the program continue to excel and develop impressive qualities that are often directed toward public service. Among the many distinguished alumni are Senator Susan Collins, the first delegate to be elected to the Senate; Senator Cory Gardner, the first delegate to be elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, and the second to be elected to the Senate; former Chief Judge Robert Henry, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit; former Ambassador to West Germany Richard Burt, and former presidential advisors Thomas "Mack" McLarty and Karl Rove. Additional notables include Governor of New Jersey Chris Christie, former Lt. Governor of Idaho David Leroy, former President of the Progressive Policy Institute Robert Shapiro, military officers, members of state legislatures, Foreign Service officers, top congressional staff, healthcare providers and university educators.

Members of the U. S. Senate Youth Program 2018 annual Senate Advisory Committee are: Senator Tim Scott of South Carolina, Republican Co-Chair; Senator Angus S. King, Jr. of Maine, Independent Co-Chair; Bipartisan Senate Advisory Members: John Barrasso, M.D. (R-WY), Thad Cochran (R-MS), Deb Fischer (R-NE), Marco Rubio (R-FL), Kamala D. Harris (D-CA), Joe Manchin III (D-WV), Edward J. Markey (D-MA) and Brian Schatz (D-HI). Each year, the Honorary Co-Chairs of the program are the vice president of the United States and the Senate majority and minority leaders. For more information please see: www.ussenateyouth.org
